FOREST AREA SERVICE COMMITTEE MINUTES

AUGUST 09, 2015

OPEN FLOOR

- James T.: No home group has the right to call an emergency meeting without the consent and approval of the: Home group Secretary, GSS, and/or Alt. GSR. No other Home group has the right to take over another home group meeting without the approval of that home group.
- Mike C: An apology was made to Reach for Recovery with regards to an overlooked $75 donation made to area. Has requested that Policy Committee a formal policy on money matters by the 1st of the year.
- Rocky: Celebrate Recovery has donated $150 to H&I for literature.
- Brian: The Summerfield Group is currently looking for a new place to meet. They are no longer able to meet at the First Baptist Church of Summerfield as of 9/1/2015.
- Linda: The Thursday meeting meets there as well, and is also looking for a new place.
- Mike C.: Donations to area (as suggested) should not be “ear-marked”.

AUGUST 09, 2015

Activities is off and running. More is to be revealed.

The Fun In the Sun picnic at Rainbow River State Park was a good time had by all. I regretfully apologize for an unfortunate mishap. While doing laundry, I lost all the receipts. Once again, very sorry so the figures will have to be from memory which of course will be very tricky.

The rest of this report was verbal.
